

Our Mission

Arrow Disposal Service is a waste hauling and recycling company that prides itself on its' ability to partner with governmental and private entities in order to provide outstanding solid waste and recycling services.

Our company offers affordable solutions for all your collection and disposal needs.

Our mission is to bring SERVICE back to the waste hauling industry where it belongs. We still believe in that almost forgotten cliché, that a job worth doing is a job worth doing well.

We approach the business of waste collection with service first in mind, with equal emphasis on performance and value for our customers.

A Bit of History

Our founder, Richard Urrutia, began providing refuse services in Alabama back in 1995.

He was able to turn his original company, Urrutia Incorporated, into a major contender in the garbage industry by emphasizing a service first philosophy.

Urrutia Inc. quickly evolved into one of the largest privately held refuse companies in Alabama and was eventually acquired by an investment firm in June of 2007.

Intent on duplicating their prior successes, Mr. Urrutia and his experienced corporate team assembled a new solid waste collection company named Arrow Disposal Service.

We guarantee that should you select Arrow Disposal Service as your source for refuse collection, we will perform these services to the highest degree of satisfaction.

Arrow is currently providing residential collection service to over 50,000 customers in Alabama & Mississippi.
